Conditions

Conditions

General conditions

- The Via Flaminia rally has a limited amount of entry positions. The allocation will be on a first pay first served basis.
- You need to appear with a car conform the age limitations of the specific rally you participate in. In case of a last minute breakdown of your car, you may bring a replacement car. If that does not meet the age requirements, then you participate hors concours.
- If four months before the scheduled start of a rally, more than one third of the maximum of entry positions is still empty, then the organisation may cancel the rally.
- The organisation reserves the right to bring in minor changes into the program.

Refunds

- In case the geopolitical situation makes it wise or necessary to cancel the Via Flaminia, to be judged by the organisation, then we will restitute the full amount minus the cost incurred at the moment of cancelation.
- In all other circumstances where the organisation cancels the event, a total refund will be given.
- In the event you cancel your registration up to four months before the start of the rally a fee of 20% of the total booking fee will be held back. A cancellation between four and two months prior to the rally will result in 50% of the total booking fee being held back. If you cancel less than two months before the rally, then no refund is possible.
